Description:

The exhibition is open to all professional photographers residing in the San Jose boundaries, as well as San Jose State University students currently enrolled in the photography program. Entries may be rejected if they do not conform to exhibition rules and conditions. All parts of the image have to be photographed by the author who is holding the copyright of all works submitted. Entries must originate as photographs (image-captures of objects via light sensitivity) made by the entrant and submitted as 300 dpi digital files. By virtue of submitting an entry, the entrant certifies the work as his own (aliases are not permitted). The entrant permits the sponsors to reproduce all or part of the entered material free of charge for publication and/or display in media related to the exhibition. This may include low resolution posting on websites. The exhibition assumes no liability for any misuse of copyright. The participant expressly declares, without any time limitation, that images entered in the contest may be used by the organizers to advertise the competition, in whatever way, and wherever, without further compensation by the organizers and their partners. (including not only media partners, but also organization partners and cooperation partners and those third parties who, in whatever form, without prior payment, contribute to the competition). The organizers will take care that images used for advertising are copyright-marked as such and will not be manipulated by digital means. The participant expressly waives the right to assert any claims (in particular copyright infringement) against the organizers in this regard. The participant accepts these conditions by participating in the competition.
